

Diagramming Adverbs

Please re-write and then diagram each of the sentences below. Pay close attention to which word(s) each adverb is modifying.

1. The wind was incredibly strong and very easily tore a hole in our tent.
2. They were so afraid of the ridiculously ugly spider.
3. Will the very eager students have a snow day tomorrow?
4. Hey, diagram this really tricky sentence on the board and be neat.
5. I constantly wait for daily updates on my slightly ancient phone.
6. After my chores, I wasn't really tired but was so ravenously hungry.
7. The very careful driver barely missed the baby turtle in the road.
8. After dinner, take the unusually long path and arrive safely.
9. At this especially busy time of year, people often feel very tired.
10. So very many students and their teachers quite eagerly awaited the superintendent's decision.

Diagramming Adverbs

Please re-write and then diagram each of the sentences below. Pay close attention to which word(s) each adverb is modifying.

1. The wind was incredibly strong and very easily tore a hole in our tent.
2. They were so afraid of the ridiculously ugly spider.
3. Will the very eager students have a snow day tomorrow?
4. Hey, diagram this really tricky sentence on the board and be neat.
5. I constantly wait for daily updates on my slightly ancient phone.
6. After my chores, I wasn't really tired but was so ravenously hungry.
7. The very careful driver barely missed the baby turtle in the road.
8. After dinner, take the unusually long path and arrive safely.
9. At this especially busy time of year, people often feel very tired.
10. So very many students and their teachers quite eagerly awaited the superintendent's decision.